ENG 320	3.00	MODERNISM AND THE MAKING OF THE NEW
Lisa Colletta			Tue Thu	02 05 PM	03 30 PM	0 /02/2024	12/12/2024

> Modernism was an international movement that drew from influences throughout Europe in its desire to break with the past and create a new way of expressing experience, to “Make it New”—to use Ezra Pound’s famous phrase. This course will examine the characteristics that define the “Modern” in literature, but we will also examine how the modernist aesthetic influenced other cultural and artistic expression in the early decades of the twentieth century. In what ways does Modernism break with the past and what does the idea of “The Modern” do artistically and culturally? In addition to paying close attention to modernist writers’ textual practices, we will also consider the cultural politics at work in international modernist texts and contexts.

> In contemporary art the clear cut boundaries between traditional disciplines (drawing, painting, printing, photography, and sculpture) have disappeared. Unconventional materials, such as recycling and creative use of industrial products and by products, have become common in contemporary art practice. The characteristic imprint of the individual artist has also been questioned by the use of ready made and all practices related to conceptual art. Performance and relational art have similarly transformed the relationship with the public, invited to participate more actively. Throughout this course, students will combine different media to explore the wide spectrum of contemporary art practices. Site specific installations may also be visited.
